An Old Name In New Hands

It is with much self-gratification that we announce an old name in new hands—the famous OLDSMOBILE line and the OLDSMOBILE DISTRIBUTING COMPANY. Wherever there are automobiles there you will find OLDSMOBILES—well and favorably known, and in taking over the OLDSMOBILE agency here we did so confident in the future of the line.

We are entirely a new corporation on the Row, and as such we have spared no expense commensurate with a successful opening for a high-grade product. It is our purpose and our pleasure with new life, new environments and new policies to place OLDSMOBILE on the pinnacle, in this territory, that is its right by heritage.

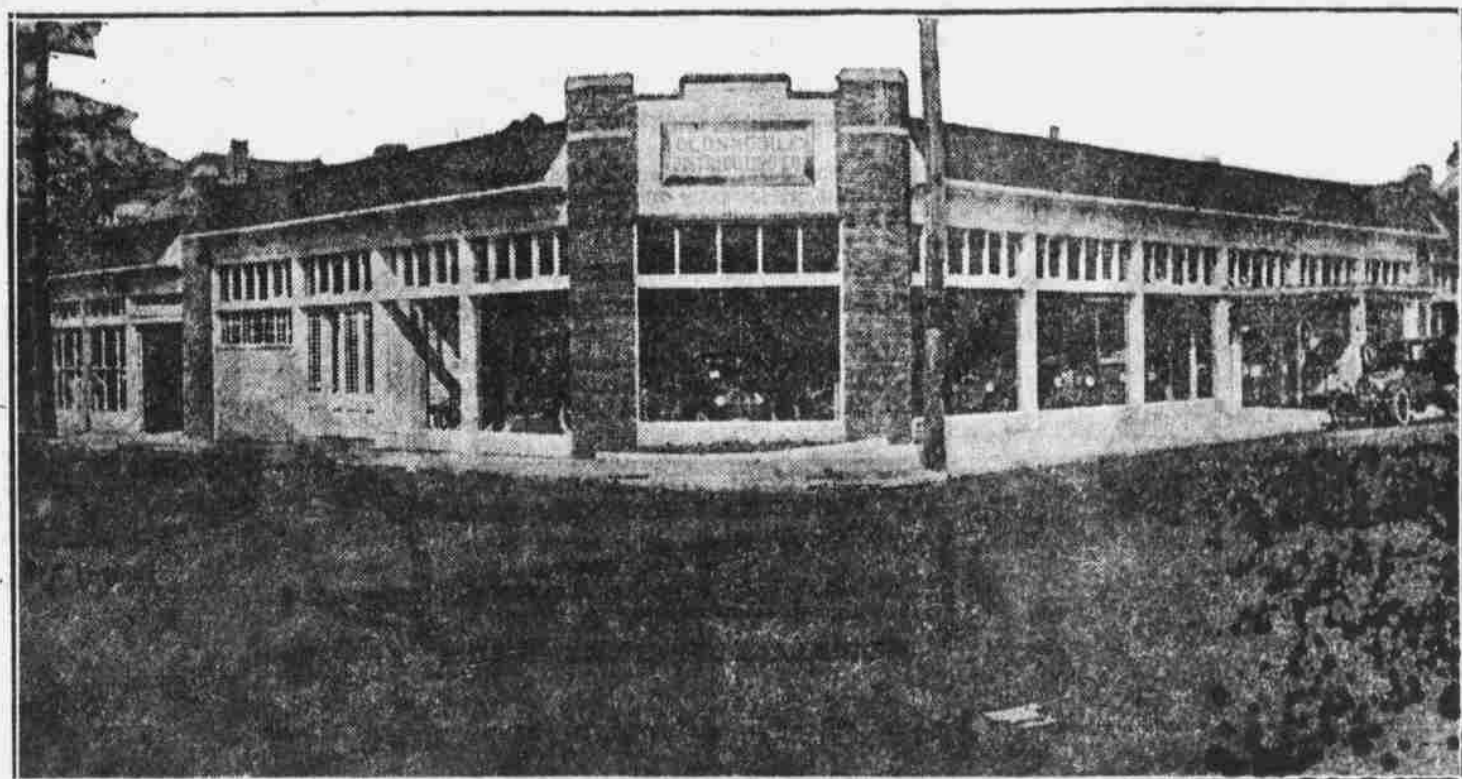

You will find in OLDSMOBILE everything essential and everything desirable. Think what that means. It means ruggedness of motor and frame. It means comfort and safety. It means lines and finish. It means conveniences and refinement—everything essential, everything desirable. So drop in. There is a car to suit you in the full line of both eights and sixes.
